

Alexis Eager – Honored Gold Member of Granny's Corner Child Care Center

Alexis Eager is a proud Mobile, Alabama native whose compassionate spirit and deep commitment to service have left an indelible mark on every space she has entered. In 2022, Alexis served faithfully as an assistant caregiver at Granny's Corner Child Care Center, where her dedication and heart for children shone brightly. Her role extended far beyond caregiving—she played a vital part in helping the center achieve the prestigious National Association for Family Child Care Accreditation Certificate, a milestone accomplishment in the center's legacy.

Known for her reliability, integrity, and nurturing soul, Alexis was a beloved presence among staff, children, and families alike. Her time at Granny's Corner was filled with personal and professional growth, as she completed numerous goals and consistently went above and beyond the call of duty. Though she transitioned from child care to pursue her calling as a medical receptionist in 2004, Alexis continued to live out her passion for serving others, guided by her Christian faith and unwavering desire to please God.

Alexis is not only a dedicated professional but also a maternal figure to many—both within her family and throughout the community. A faithful member of Kingdom Life Center, she currently serves as the Events Coordinator, using her talents to bring people together and uplift those around her. Her walk with God is at the core of everything she does, and she is deeply respected as a God-fearing, humanitarian woman of faith.

Though her daily presence is missed at Granny's Corner, Alexis continues to support the center through her involvement in various events, never truly leaving the heart of the place she helped shape. In honor of her loyalty and lasting impact, Alexis Eager has been named one of Granny's Corner's Gold Member Employees, a lifetime title of appreciation and recognition.
